

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Are Moving

It is Thursday at 8:00 in the morning. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are moving to a new apartment. They carry their furniture and boxes up two flights of stairs. They put a couch in the living room. They put a pink blanket on the couch. They put a table in the kitchen. Mrs. Nelson carries a box of plates. The box is not light. It is very heavy. She puts the box of plates next to the sink. Mr. Nelson carries a bed to the bedroom. He puts a dresser to the right of the bed. Now it is 11:00 at night. They are very tired. They drink some water. They think, “Moving is too much work.”
