

Susan's Visit to the Doctor

Susan does not feel well. She has a pain in her chest. She calls the clinic to make an appointment. A woman answers the phone and tells Susan to come to the clinic at 3:00. Susan arrives at the clinic at 3:00 and rings the bell. The receptionist comes to the desk. She tells Susan to have a seat while she waits for the doctor. Susan waits 10 minutes, and then the doctor is ready. The doctor listens to Susan's chest. The doctor does a test to see if Susan has a problem with her lungs or heart. The doctor tells Susan that she needs to rest for one week. The doctor also gives Susan a prescription for some medicine. He tells her to go the pharmacy where they sell medicine. With lots of rest, Susan hopes to be feeling her best again soon!
